

2011.06.27 - About blueCFD 1.7-2 and blueCFD 2.0-1

The next generation of blueCFD 2.0-1 is already in development. We are expecting to release exciting new features with the next blueCFD release, along with the exciting new features of OpenFOAM 2.0.0 released by OpenCFD! Keep in kind that blueCFD is not endorsed by OpenCFD, who is the trade mark holder of OpenFOAM.

As a sample of the new developments underway, registered blueCFD users can get the new User Guide here for blueCFD 1.7-2. Neither the general public nor other registered users can access the new guide.
