

2013.08.24 - blueCAPE's on-line services have been upgraded

As announced in the news report 2013.08.07 - Upgrading blueCAPE's on-line services, the upgrade has finally come to a conclusion. We now have several times more online resources than before and we are now capable of providing improved services.

At this time, our website has been restored and is ready to be used as it was 2 weeks ago. In due time, we will start announcing the improvements we're making on our online services.
